

FARMING OUTLOOK INDUCES OPTIMISM

Promise of the Harvest Field Has Stimulating Effect in All
Lines of Commerce.

MONEY IN STRONG DEMAND

Call for Loans Taken To Indicate That
The Business World Generally Anticipates Return to Normal.

For a week of midsummer, local business conditions can hardly be found fault with. The financial situation has been good, but dull. The promise of superabundance of crops in this state has created a feeling of optimism; and very properly so, for when the farmer prospers all classes seem to prosper. In banking, everything is reported satisfactory, with the demand for money strong and an ample supply for all legitimate purposes and demands. But there are many applications for the use of capital which are not always wise in their conception; yet indicate a strong feeling of hopefulness, and confidence in the future. This may be noted locally, as well as elsewhere, and the expression locally, includes Utah, Idaho and Wyoming, for these three states constitute one financial family. In the case of this part of the country, they seem to be moving along conservative lines to recovery. It is estimated that 75 per cent of the possibilities of adverse conditions are being met, and there would have to be a serious change in the immediate future in order to greatly lessen what seems now to promise abundant crops. On the stock exchange in the east, the best season of the year is being met. The investing public is steering wide of anything questionable; so there is but little inclination to invest in anything not well established. In other words, the wild cat is having a hard time of it.

LUMBER.
The lumber trade reports no change of prices since last week, although the market is stiffening just a little. City business is picking up more. The railroad tariff does not go into effect until Oct. 15, the interstate commerce commission granting the roads 60 extra days in which to prepare and publish their new tariffs. The Portland gateways are not being finally settled, as the railroads are proposing to settle it in the courts. The controversy means that eastern shippers demand a rate from all common ports west of the Cascade range, instead of paying a regular rate from Portland, plus the arbiters to Portland from sawmill points north and south.

HARDWARE.
The hardware trade reports no change whatever from last week, and with a general good all-round business. While ease of course is not better than last year at this time, it is claimed that business is fully as good.

DRY GOODS.
The wholesale dry goods trade, jobbers report, dress goods prices reduced from 7 to 15 per cent, with large mills reaching out for business, indicating they are up with their orders. The radical cut in the price of some fabrics causing buyers to hesitate in the trade, it being claimed it is not justified by the cost of labor and raw material, and the trade press characterizes the move as an effort for business causing buyers to hesitate. Orders entered thus far, are reported to be on luster goods and cottons, chiefly, although all wool fabrics, such as suitings, are being bought. The demand is much less than in May or June, with an oversupply of heavy colored cotton goods, while yards are being sold at a sacrifice. Part is becoming so active with some trading in satens, and in the finer lines of plain cottons. Western buyers are now calling side-lane goods to meet wants of customers. This style has grown so important that some of the largest mills are running extensively on various modifications of it in indigos, blacks and whites, and nearly the whole range of fabrics handled by staple producers. Unchecked bleached fabrics are cheaper. There is a better call for shingams, with the demand, however, equal to the output; fancy white goods are cheap, perhaps as cheap as ever before when intrinsic values are considered. Knit goods orders are reported in better shape, with signs of increased demand, and some advances are reported. The demand for business in prospect. The demand for silks increases, with prices advancing in proportion to the rise in raw silk.

RETAIL TRADE.
In the retail trade, the usual midsummer conditions obtain. Dealers report business as very fair, with the demand beginning to buy serges mostly in dark shades for children's school dresses. Dealers are beginning to feature satin finished silks and satin dresses in their window displays, in shades of color. Most of the shades shown are in London smoke, elephant head, olive and myrtle greens, new shades of golden brown, chamols and shades. New fall goods are arriving daily, as the buyers are closing up their eastern purchasing, and returning home. Local dealers believe Salt Lake will witness a good fall trade; so are making preparations. No one seems gloomy.

They are charged with the murder of Morris Stein and Miss Heister Porter at Loudenville, Ohio, Aug. 14.

Monday, August 24th.

LIFE INSURANCE

(All questions relating to life insurance will be promptly answered by the Press Bureau of the Utah Association of Life Underwriters. Address P. O. Box 421, Salt Lake City, Utah.)

A brief letter from President Farwell from Los Angeles, where he is attending the convention as a delegate from the Utah association, speaks in glowing terms of the proceedings and winds up with the following: "We are personally distributing of invitations. Every member gets one as he signs his name," which means that we can expect to entertain a goodly number on their visit here, which is the 26th inst.

The following question and answer is in the Insurance Field:
Question.—Please give me some rough figures to show the number of people dying between certain ages. I find that mortality statistics are very pertinent arguments in some persons in inducing them to sign the application.

Answer.—Any reliable mortality table will give you the exact percentage but it is sometime more effective to use these calculations in the rough. Take 100,000 persons at the age of 30 years, when most of the diseases of childhood have been successfully gone through with and the heavy mortality incident to infancy is past. Out of this 100,000 persons at the age of 40 years, when most of the diseases of early youth and the beginning of maturity—that is to say, in the 20 years from age 10 to age 30. At the latter age, 55,441 persons will be still living. According to the estimate, in the next 20 years a much higher proportion of persons will die, and at 50 years old 69,903 will be yet alive. This shows that 70 per cent or 70,000 of the 100,000 persons at age 30 will die in the next 20 years. This is particularly significant when we consider that a man's best work is in most cases accomplished between the ages of 30 and 50. Going beyond 50 years the probability of remaining 50,000 between the ages of 45 and 50 years. At 50 years the man who has not accumulated his competency has nothing left to live for but a bare existence. Even if he has sufficient income at that time to want insurance, he has not only practically outlived the necessity for it as his family is by that time able to take care of themselves, but he is in fact a "dead one" as far as a policy is concerned, for he has only one chance in a hundred of being able to pass the physical examination. Some companies draw the death line at 60 years, others at 65. As a side-light on this question it should be remembered that the last national census shows 32 per cent of the widows in the United States earn their own living.

In the case of "Twisting" now being tried in New York, the accused has refused to be tried by the commission of insurance and has appealed to the courts. As this is the first case to be tried under the New York law, it is attracting widespread interest.

EXCELLENT HEALTH ADVICE.

Mrs. M. M. Davison, of No. 379 Crawford Ave., San Jose, Cal., says: "The worth of Electric Bitters as a general family remedy, for headache, biliousness and torpor of the liver and bowels is so pronounced that I am prompted to say a word in its favor, for the benefit of the dead line at 60 years, others at 65. As a side-light on this question it should be remembered that the last national census shows 32 per cent of the widows in the United States earn their own living."

CANDIDATE RICHARDSON CLAIMS LARGE MAJORITY

Houston, Tex., Aug. 21.—Texas has a new candidate for governor in the person of John Richardson, who has been a reporter on many southern papers. Mr. Richardson has issued a formal announcement of his candidacy in an address which is being widely distributed. "With the help of God, I intend to be governor," says he. "I enter the race seemingly handicapped, cut off from the great political parties that have followed Mr. Bryan at several times as God is with me, and I stand for what is right."

Mr. Richardson opposes prohibition.

SPRINGFIELD RIOTERS INDICTED

Grand Jury Hard at Work Determined to Rid Community of Lawless Element.

BUT JUST MAKING A START

Except in Case of Rayer Investigation Has, So Far, Been Confined To Riot at Loper's.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 21.—Six more alleged riot leaders have been caught in the grand jury net here. The inquisitorial body tonight returned indictments against six persons, the documents charging 20 separate offenses. All were predicated upon the trouble at Loper's restaurant, and were identical with those charged against Kate Howard in the indictments returned yesterday. The jury has as yet confined its work to investigating the riot at Loper's, except in the case of Abraham Rayer who was indicted for murder yesterday in connection with the lynching of William Donigan last Saturday.

"We have only made a fair start," said Asst. State Atty. Wines tonight. "With the character of evidence that is coming in and the seeming determination of the grand jury to rid the community of the lawless element, there is every chance that half a hundred or more indictments will be returned within the next few days."

PERSONS INDICTED.

The persons indicted today are: Ernest Humphrey, huckster; Rudolph Hredemeyer, mechanic; John Schione, grocery clerk; William H. Schuler, cabman; Herbert Carey, blacksmith; and one other man whose identity was kept secret at the order of Judge Creighton, because he is understood to have fled from Springfield. The charges against Hredemeyer and the fugitive were each indicted four times for malicious mischief and riot. Carey and Schuler were made the subject of two indictments each, the same offenses being charged. Judge Creighton fixed bail at $2,000 in each indictment.

Among the witnesses before the grand jury today was Harry Loper. He had testified at the coroner's inquest yesterday that he had little recollection of the identity of the members of the mob who destroyed his establishment, but it was stated tonight that he had made important revelations to the grand jury.

It was thought for a time today that the coroner's jury, which has been attempting to solve the mystery of the death of Louis Johnson, who was killed in the Loper riot, would find its work vain. Coroner Woodruff discovered that no autopsy had been made on the body and the cause of death was conjectured, one version being that Johnson fell into the basement and broke his neck.

In order to clear this doubt, the coroner and a physician went to Mechanicsburg, where the body had been buried, exhumed the body and performed an autopsy, which showed that he had been shot through the back.

Dr. Frank R. Wheeler presented this conclusion to the coroner's jury tonight. He testified that an undertaker had sewed up the wound and that it was impossible to determine whether the bullet entered from the front or the back. He gave it, as his opinion, that Johnson was shot in the back, because the wound there was clean.

The small towns of the county continue to be danger spots. At Buffalo, a village 15 miles from here, the following notice has been posted at the interurban trolley line station:

WARNING TO NEGROES.

"All niggers wanted out of town by Monday, 12 a. m. sharp." It was signed by "Buffalo Sharpshooters."

Complaints also filter in daily from the mining camps, coming from whites and negroes alike. Each race seems distrustful of the other in these communities, and Sheriff Werner is puzzled as to how to cope with the situation. Arrests for intimidation would be likely to become the cause of open riotousness, in his opinion, and he also hesitates to send any considerable force of deputies to these points lest similar results follow. Thus far, however, there have been no occurrences to justify the fears of the small town residents.

THE OTOCROONS.

One of the refugees at the arsenal was a woman whose white skin betrayed only faint traces of negro blood. She was accompanied by a fair-haired boy about 5 years of age.

"I suppose that I am foolish to come here," said she, "but I should go crazy if I tried to sleep at home. I am not even sure that neighbors suspect me of having negro blood in my veins. I have not mingled with the negroes here before and have kept aloof from the whites. But my husband is away, and I could not bear to think of having our home invaded by negroes who might kill our boy. So I have thrown off the mask and come here. We are going to move away from this place just as soon as possible. In fact, my husband is looking for a position in another city now."

FOR SORE FEET.

"I have found Bucklen's Arnica Salve to be the proper thing to use for sore feet, as well as for healing burns, sores, cuts and all manner of abrasions," writes Mr. W. Stone, of East Poland, Maine. "It is the proper thing too for piles. Try it! Sold under guarantee at Z. C. M. L. drug store, 25c."

CANDIDATESHERMAN WILL FOLLOW CANDIDATE BRYAN

New York, Aug. 21.—For the purpose of selecting the Republican nominee for Congress the most effective speakers for use early in the national campaign, a conference was held tonight between Frank H. Hitchcock, chairman of the Republican national committee, and James S. Sherman, the Republican nominee for vice-president. The national acquaintance which Mr. Sherman has with all of these men made his counsel extremely valuable to Mr. Hitchcock.

TWO LETTERS FROM ROOSEVELT

Given Out Because of Attacks on Aldrich Currency Bill by Senator La Follette.

PRESIDENT APPROVED IT.

Otherwise Would Not Have Signed It—Avowedly an Emergency Measure, Yet It Is Good.

Lincoln, Aug. 21.—Because of the attacks made upon the Aldrich currency bill by Senator La Follette, together with his demanding of roll calls on that bill, Senator E. J. Burkett today gave out two letters from President Roosevelt commending the Aldrich law unqualifiedly. Senator Burkett received the following letter from the president:

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 18, 1908.
My Dear Sir—I heartily approve of the currency measure, otherwise I would not have signed the bill. In my judgment it would have been most unwise not to have passed it, and not a single argument worth heeding was advanced against it. I enclose you a copy of the bill and a copy of the letter to the subject. Sincerely yours,
THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

Following is the copy of the letter referred to by the president:

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 23, 1908.
My Dear Will—I have your letter of the 20th. My motives were simply those I have in signing any good bill. Beyond all question, the emergency currency bill is a good measure and I have not heard it attacked with any arguments which I thought even deserved an answer. It is avowedly only an emergency measure; it lasts merely the length of time to permit us to develop a permanent plan; but during that time, it makes provision for the needed elasticity of currency, and it does it in an utterly unobjectionable manner. It does not accomplish anything very much, but it does accomplish something, and there is literally not one objection that has been raised to it worthy of paying the slightest heed to, while, furthermore, it makes the administering of the currency a commission to make a report on the permanent currency plan. Sincerely yours,
THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

SHE LIKES GOOD THINGS.

Mrs. Chas. E. Smith, of West Franklin, Maine, says: "I like good things and have adopted Dr. King's New Life Pills as our family laxative medicine, because they are good and do their work without making a fuss about it. These painless purgatives sold at Z. C. M. L. drug store, 25c."

MARITAL RELATIONS OF HELEN MALONEY

New York, Aug. 21.—What is believed to be a move for final adjustment of the marital relations of Helen Maloney, daughter of Martin Maloney of Philadelphia, and Arthur H. Osborne of this city, was the announcement today that a decree of interlocutory judgment of annulment of marriage had been granted to the parties named. The fact is set forth in the memorandum stating that the decree was filed in the county clerk's office on May 20, 1908.

The three months from the entering of the interlocutory decree elapsed yesterday, and although it was said that no final decree of annulment had been signed, it was understood that today's action was for the purpose of bringing the case before the supreme court for that purpose.

A ceremony after the form of a marriage was performed at Mansfield, L. I., on Dec. 18, 1905. Miss Maloney, giving her name as Helen Eugene, on May 20, Justice McCall of the supreme court signed an interlocutory decree annulling the ceremony, saying that there had never been any marriage between the plaintiff and the defendant. The court directed that final judgment should not be entered in the action until after the expiration of three months.

NON-UNION MINER.

His House Dynamited and He Fatally Shot from Ambush.

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 21.—Another Davie, a non-union miner, whose house at Pratt City was destroyed by dynamite Wednesday night, was fired on from ambush near his home at Pratt City, tonight and fatally injured. Quite a number of shots were fired into his body. Davie has been working steadily since the declaration of the strike and immediately after his house was dynamited claimed that he had seen and recognized the men who committed the deed.

Gov. Comer has not yet decided what action to take in the matter of throwing the troops into the district, although great pressure has been brought to bear upon him today to augment the force.

Apprehension of further trouble continues keen all over the district.

ARTILLERYMEN CHARGED WITH AWFUL CRIME

Denver, Aug. 21.—A News special from Laramie, Wyo., says that while every effort has been made by the authorities at Camp Emmet Crawford, the military maneuver grounds to keep the fact secret, it is known that one of the most atrocious crimes imaginable was committed last Sunday by members of an artillery battery, who assaulted a young woman, leaving her bruised and unconscious upon the ground.

After lying half dead for hours, the victim of the outrage revived and suc-
